DGS out and about

Our concert to the Southbourne Literary Society on Wednesday 20th January was well received by an appreciative audience. It is proposed that the £40 'fee' received will be donated to the Haiti disaster appeal. Many thanks to Stuart, Sally-Anne, Andy and John who played. Talking to the organizers there was a good chance that we'll be invited back again next year!

Then, on Friday 22nd January, DGS were invited to play at the Branksome Park Care Centre in Poole on the occasion of John Skinner's birthday. John is a former member of the Society and his sister and brother were thrilled that John Edwards and I were available to play at short notice.

To awaken some deep-seated memories, Ann appeared beforehand and presented John with a birthday card (from the DGS) together with a photo dating from around 2004/5 with John playing in the guitar orchestra. The concert was 'in the round' with John and family and residents and staff surrounding us on beds, wheelchairs and chairs. It was a very informal atmosphere and residents would often join in. Everybody was very appreciative.

Afterwards, John E had to rush off but I managed to partake in tea and birthday cake and chat with John S and family. It was very rewarding and I think it would be great to be able to do this type of 'gig' on a more regular basis, it would also provide yet more opportunity for performance practice with the guitar.

What do folks think?

January Meeting

January saw Stephen return with a new approach to the orchestra, as he presented us with a new piece but divided us up into our sections first to work on it, before bringing the whole orchestra together to run through it. Many of us found this really helpful, enabling us to agree fingering and other issues with more experienced players before having to actually 'perform' the piece. We also got back to Pitfield in earnest, with Jacqui leading on flute.

Players this month were:

- Sarah and Stephen: Sarabande (Double) and Menuett (Anon)
- Julian: Two studies (Giuliani); Etude No. 8 (Villa Lobos); Study (Garner)
- Andy: Preludium & Fancy (Dowland); Natalia (Lauro)
- Bob: Terminus; Willoughby's Farm (instrumental) - Ralph McTell

Next time ...

At next meeting we will look at all three Pitfield movements and Solstice. So you can manage your ensemble-practice schedule there will be at least one more item to work on for the concert in the summer.

Found
- at a meeting last year.
A black nylon case for, I assume, a music stand. With strap, velcro flap and the text "MUS-A3 BK" in white letters. Please let me know if its yours, but I shall be bringing it along to meeting anyway.

Gift aid ...

As a registered charity, we try and take full advantage of the Gift Aid system whereby we can claim back tax paid on your personal subscription. Of course not everybody is a tax payer, but at present the tax we get back from those of you who do, (and who have signed up to the Gift Aid system) is the equivalent of having 4 extra members in the society. So it's well worth my time and efforts to encourage all taxpaying members to sign up. It's very simple; I give you a form to complete, which takes all of two minutes, and I then submit an annual claim. It costs individuals nothing, the money we get back comes out of what you have already paid to the government. So if you are a tax payer and would like to sign up to the Gift Aid scheme, please let me know and I'll arrange it. It is just worth mentioning the corollary; to keep me out of trouble, anyone who ceases to be a tax payer should please let me know, as I must stop claiming the Gift Aid rebate on your subscription.
