Since the last newsletter, our treasurer Peter got married to his partner of several years— Zoe. The wedding took place in Boldre Church on October 15th..Your Chairman played Villa-Lobos and Albeniz during the signing, and following the meal, a celideh was provided by Stephen Kenyon and his band in Boldre Village Hall. I am sure we all wish Peter and Zoe hearty congratulations, and many happy years together.

At our last two meetings we have rehearsed Bach Prelude and Fugue 22, Koshkin Elegy Corelli Concerto 6, Grant's Introduction, Prelude and Valse on DGS, Faure Berceuse, revised Debussy's Reverie and practised Peter's Bizarre Bazaar—so we have been busy, and presumably these will form the backbone of our concerts in the new year.

Member's contributions to the afternoon entertainment during the two meetings have contained a Bach Trio Sonata from Chris, Maurice and John. Movements from Suite Francaise of Poulenc —Sue, Martin, Rick and Bob. Danza Espanola and Asturias —Peter—and Mudarra's Romanesca, Narvaez' Guardame las vacas and H V-L Valse and Gavota from Suite Populaire —John.

Pieces for rehearsal on December 11th are as follows

- Corelli Concerto VI
- Bach Prelude and Fugue 22
- (Individual contributions)
- Debussy Reverie
- Koshkin Elegy
- Faure berceuse
- _____
- Vivaldi Pastorella
- (Individual contributions)
- Aint Misbehaving
- Eleanor Rigby
- Syncopated Clock.

Despite time being short we will probably need to have our regular rehearsal, nevertheless perhaps members would like to bring mince pies etc so we can have a slightly longer Christmas type tea break. Hopefully there will also be time for any solo or ensemble contributions members may like to play.

The following music is a second part for Tarrega's Lagrima, which started its life as an improvisation by an old friend of mine, and excellent guitarist, Peter Jones who lives in Holmfirth, Yorkshire . I thought members might enjoy this old favourite as a duo.
