Durweston Concert Success!

Congratulations to all for another successful performance at Durweston Village Hall on Sunday 17th March 2013. Durweston Village Hall proved to be a very enjoyable space to perform in and also the team there managed to provide us with a decent sized audience in which to perform to. We have also managed to raise some funds for the society along the way which is excellent. Combined fundraising from Winfrith and Durweston concerts raised us £141 for DGS funds. Below are some action shots of the performance and also if you visit the DGS YouTube channel you will currently find one ensemble performance from this concert with more to follow...

Our next meeting on the 21st April 2013 will be slightly different to usual. The meeting will now take place in the afternoon with the hall being open from 1.45pm and rehearsal with Grant starting at 2.00pm. At 4.15pm, James O'Neil will perform a recital for us to conclude the meeting. Friends and relatives are welcome for the recital as it would be nice to get a larger audience to hear James play.

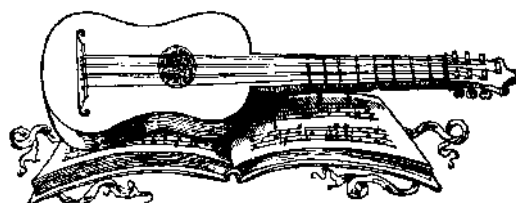

James will be playing:

| Koshkin - | Tin Soldiers (from Prince's Toy Suite) |

Chris would like to remind members that he bulk-buys D'addario strings and is happy to sell them to DGS members at a very reduced price. Also if any one needs guitar repairs or adjustments to their action, he is happy to do this free of charge, or for a small charge depending on time needed.

Request for music Old and New to be brought to the April meeting

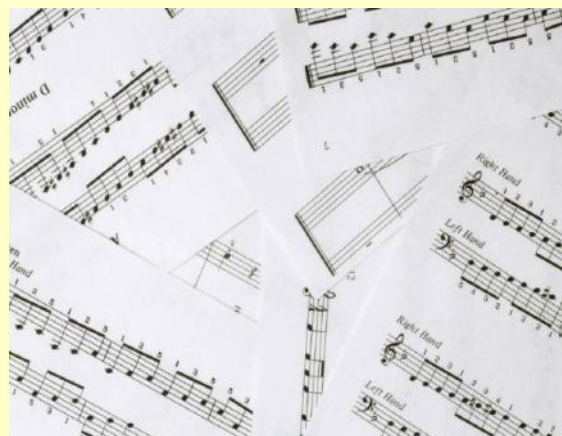

Grant has requested for all playing members to:

(a) return all individual parts for the following pieces:

Handel
Poulenc
Sicilienne (Truillard)
Salut d'Amour
Mendelssohn
Jazz Legato and Pizzicato

(b) bring with them to the April meeting their parts for:

Suite Espagnol
Vivaldi Concerto for 2 Guitars
Summer Solstice

John has also mentioned that although he has received quite a bit of music from our 2011/12 programme there is still a lot outstanding. So, if all members could search through their collections and return parts that we are no longer rehearsing that would be much appreciated!

Thanks
